

AMIPS – CARRIERES n° 539 - janvier 2011

Our Client is the world leading company, dedicated to R&D, production and sale of innovative dermatological solutions. Approximately 20% revenues are invested annually to discover and develop new drugs and access innovative technologies.

For its international R&D center based in France, to enable the worldwide development organization to timely acquire clean and access to clinical data, we are looking for the:

GLOBAL DATA MANAGEMENT MANAGER -M/F

You will be responsible for the setup of high quality validated standardized data acquisition system, for the delivery of clean data base in an optimized time frame and for the maintenance of Clinical Data Bases of a large diversity of studies, from early phases to phases III. As a confirmed team leader, you will lead the EU/US/JPN Data Management groups and activities.

The Challenge

- In Data management organization and IT Systems deployment

Define Global Data Management structure, processes and technology. Manage the Data Management System upgrades, and the validation process according to regulations. Provide recommendations for DM systems and standardize company R&D databases and development of tools and processes.

- In Project support

Provide expert review and guidance for production of Data Management deliverables, assess resources required for any project and allocate Data Management resources appropriately qualified and trained. Develop specific metrics to control internal and CROs activities and ensure that the Quality Assurance requirements for the department are met.

- In Process improvement and quality control

Ensure global Data Management SOP production and maintenance, organize and monitor training. Controls compliance to SOP and implement tools to monitor quality. Pro-actively detects issues and develop mitigation plans in cooperation with other functions including QA department.

- In People management

Accountable for staffing, budgeting of a growing data management department. Plan, assign and review yearly objectives for DM staff in a balanced and realistic way; Define and implement training/professional development strategy for DM staff and manage the performance appraisals, career planning and development of direct/indirect reports.

Your Profile

Third Degree or 5 years Diploma in data processing with specialisation in Health/Life sciences or equivalent and excellent knowledge in Data Management system and in Computer System Validation (Medibase,...)

At least 10 years' experience in clinical data-management in a pharmaceutical industry/ a CRO.

Experience of people management in a multi-cultural environment. Ability to develop teamwork and cooperation spirit. Acts as a leader and empowers people.

Fluent English, French is a plus.

If you want to join an international leading company and apply for this challenging vacancy, upload your cover letter and resume/CV (ref. DN0701) to:

jobs@acavi.fr

3 rue Stella – F- 69002 LYON

75 boulevard Haussmann – F- 75008 PARIS

ACAVI, specialist of scientific recruitment and human resources for industries dedicated to Life Sciences and Chemistry.

www.acavi.fr